

I think that Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force the airing of the anti-Kerry documentary, "Stolen Honor" just days before the election is atrocious.

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, it is obligated by law to serve the public interest. When such large companies are allowed to control the airwaves, the result is corruption. We want to see substantive news about real issues that concern us.

We need to strengthen media ownership rules instead of weakening them. The license renewal process needs to be more involved and require more accountability. Thank you.
